INSTRUCTIONS: Use typewriter or write plainly in ink. Fill in all blanks. Be sure to answer every question. If none, or not known, so state. Do not abbreviate. Write out full the day of month and year of birth. If unknown, state approximate age. Occupation should be such as to indicate clearly the trade or profession followed, and not merely the fact that the deceased was a laborer, clerk, or housekeeper. Cause of death must be stated in plain English. Indefinite terms, such as debility, old age, etc., should be avoided. Causes of death which may be the result of occupation should be reported. Deaths from violence must be reported to the Coroner. Physicians are required to report to the Health Department the name of every person who has been under their professional care during the last illness. See instructions on back of certificates.
